The parties are entering into this agreement so that each of the parties and their affiliates (each, when disclosing, "Discloser") may disclose to the other party and to their affiliates (each, when receiving, "Recipient") information related to the proposed business transaction that Discloser considers confidential, that is marked as confidential or which Recipient should know is confidential based on the way it was disclosed or the subject matter of the information (the "Confidential Information"). A "representative" is an employee, contractor, advisor or consultant of either party or of its respective affiliates. A party may disclose Confidential Information when compelled to do so by law if it provides reasonable prior notice to the other party, unless a court orders that the other party not be given notice. If there is an unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information, Recipient shall notify Discloser in writing as soon as it becomes aware of such disclosure and provide reasonable assistance to Discloser to minimize any damages caused by such disclosure.

3. Information That is Not Confidential Information. Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) was known to Recipient without restriction before receipt from Discloser; (b) is publicly available through no fault of Recipient; (c) is rightfully received by Recipient from a third party without a duty of confidentiality; or (d) is independently developed by Recipient.

4. Term and Termination. This agreement will have a term of three (3) years from the Effective Date and either party may sooner terminate this agreement on 30 days' prior written notice. Section 2 of this agreement will survive any expiration or termination of this agreement as to Confidential Information that is disclosed before termination or expiration and for a period of two (2) years thereafter. Upon expiration or earlier termination, Recipient shall return or destroy all Confidential Information of Discloser (at Discloser's option) and certify in writing that it has done so. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, protection of trade secrets, including, but not limited to, technical information about a Discloser's current products and services and all information about possible unreleased products or services shall never expire.
